

FOILED THE LYNCHERS.

SI KING, A NEGRO FIEND, HANGS HIMSELF IN MISSOURI.

Seven Hundred Men Track Him Through the Woods for Several Days—His Crime—Dead—Buried—Reburied—Burned—All's Well.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 8.—Si King, the burly negro who assaulted two women in the vicinity of New London, Mo., two weeks ago, and was hounded by a mob day and night for almost a week, was found hanging in the woods less than a mile from the scene of his crimes. He was buried under the tree where he swung. It is pretty certain that he hanged himself, as his coat and boots lay near, and the rope was a plough line, stolen from a neighboring barn. The body was so decomposed that it had to be buried immediately, though Dr. D. W. Young, brother of the assaulted ladies, declared it should be burned. Five hundred persons viewed the body.

At an early hour on the morning of the 25th ult. Si King, in peeling the bark of Mr. E. J. Jeffrey, near New London, Mo., found that gentleman's seventeen-year-old daughter, Miss Laura, milking cows. He approached the young lady, and before she was aware of his intentions seized her in his arms. In the desperate struggle that ensued the girl's clothing was torn from her person. The black brute then picked her up in his arms and carried and dragged her to a papaw patch, where he succeeded in accomplishing his purpose. He then beat her into complete insensibility, at the same time swearing that he would murder her. Lying her, as he supposed, dead, he proceeded on his way. Laura, in the course of an hour, regained consciousness and dragged herself, completely divested of clothing, to the house, where the alarm was given, and a party of neighbors armed with shotguns and revolvers started on the trail. He was tracked down the main road a distance of five and a half miles to the residence of J. B. Harris, a son-in-law of Mr. Jeffrey, where he found Mrs. Harris alone and preparing the midday meal.

This was about 10 o'clock. The negro thrust a revolver into Harris' face, demanding her money. He then choked and beat her terribly, but did not succeed in accomplishing a second assault. The lady after a desperate struggle broke away from him and fled to the house of a neighbor, half a mile distant. The negro took what money he could find in the house and disappeared in the woods adjoining. Some seven hundred men took part in the chase. A colored man was arrested because of the resemblance to King, and another boy who reported that he had seen King was compelled to ask the sheriff's protection from the mob, who were hunting that party.

The body of Si King after being cut down from the tree and buried was dug up by unknown persons and thrown on a pile of brush and logs and burned. Only a few bones were found, and the citizens of New London gathered them up and carried them home as curiosities. The cremation of Si King's body was evidently the work of some of these same citizens, and there seems little desire in the community to find out who they are.

DEMENTED MOTHER.

Dresses Her Babe and Herself and Gives and Takes Poison.

UNRAVA, O., Oct. 8.—Mrs. Wm. McCluskey, a young matron of this city, dressed herself and babe in their best, gave the infant morphine and took a deadly dose of the same herself, and lay down on her bed to die.

When her husband arrived about 10 o'clock, he found both barely alive. The child lay upon its mother's arm, and the lady's prayer book and her husband's picture were by her side. The child died at 7 o'clock and the mother is now dying.

The lady took the first prize at the county fair for beauty, and was, indeed, a lovely child. No cause can be assigned for the mother's rash act.

HE CONFESSED.

JAMES WINANS the Murderer of Clara Hough.

MANSFIELD, O., Oct. 8.—At the preliminary hearing of John Cromer, it was developed that Cromer has confessed that Winans killed Clara Hough. He says Winans ran down over the hill into the ravine. He heard a shot, then Winans came back over the hill and they went home together.

Cromer revealed these facts to the officers when arrested, being under the impression that Winans had confessed, and had charged him with the crime. Winans since kept his mouth closed, and what has been learned is from Cromer, who is the youngest.

L. N. STOCKHOLDERS.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 8.—The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Louisville & Nashville road was held here. All the business transacted had been cut and dried before hand. The president's report showed the road in a fairly prosperous condition. All the old directors except four were re-elected. The new men are Thomas Butler, John H. Hanna, J. A. Horsey and Arnold Marcus, of New York. Those left out are E. H. Green, W. B. Williams and Herman Clark, of New York, and James Trabue, of Louisville. This afternoon M. H. Smith will be re-elected president.

Royal Reception.

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 8.—A special train of six palace cars containing all the officers of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad company, on their annual tour of inspection, arrived here. The party were at once driven to the rooms of the Duquesne club. The banquet tendered the party was in every way one of the greatest successes, and one of the finest ever spread in this city. Toasts were numerous and such as were calculated to bring out the heartiest responses. Speech-making was continued until a late hour, when the guests of the club retired. They left for Cleveland.

Fatal shooting.

VICKSBURG, Miss., Oct. 8.—Hon. W. R. Milnes and W. W. Watson, both of Dybbala, Miss., had a personal difficulty at Holly Springs, Miss., in which the latter was shot in the stomach and instantly killed, after firing two shots. Milnes is an intelligent and well-to-do farmer, and at one time represented Marshall county in the Legislature. Watson was one of the most prominent lawyers in the state. The shooting occurred in the presence of Circuit Judge Featherstone, who had just adjourned court. Milnes gave himself up. Great excitement prevailed.
